

JOHN MORROW

Taylor Hall
427 Lorch St.
Madison, WI 53706

Ph: 319 400 3160
morrow1@wisc.edu
www.johnmorrow.info

Education

---

Ph.D. Development Economics, University of Wisconsin-Madison, 2006-present.

M.S. Economics, University of Wisconsin-Madison, 2006.

M.S. Mathematics, University of Iowa, 2004.

B.S. (Honors) Mathematics, B.S. Economics, University of Iowa, 2003.

Working Papers

---

“Zero Upward Mobility and Redistribution” (w/Michael Carter), April 2008.

“Is Selection a Third Gain from Trade?” (w/Swati Dhingra), November 2007.

“Benford’s Law, Families of Distributions, and a Test Basis”, August 2006.

“Strategic Interaction in the Sex Market” (w/Yoav Sivan)

Work in Progress

---

“Multisector Skill Diversity and Trade”

“Endowments, Equality and Power Relationships”

“Purchase Timing of Durable Goods in Dynamic Settings”

Presentations

---

Small Open Economies in a Globalized World (Wilfrid Laurier, Upcoming)

Midwest Intl. Economic Development Conference (UW-Madison, May 2008)

Research Experience

---

Research Assistant. Michael Carter, UW-Madison, 2007-present.

Research Assistant. Laura Schechter, UW-Madison, 2006-2007.

Principal Investigator. "Envelope Paradox" Experiments, University of Iowa, 2003-2004.

Awards/Fellowships

---

Vilas Fellow, UW-Madison, 2004-2005.

Faculty Appreciation (Teaching Award), University of Iowa, 2003.

Summer Fellow (Mathematics), University of Iowa, 2003.

Howard Bowen Award (Economics), University of Iowa, 2003.

References

---

William Brock, Professor, University of Wisconsin-Madison

Michael Carter, Professor, University of Wisconsin-Madison.

Jean-Paul Chavas, Professor, University of Wisconsin-Madison.

Ian Coxhead, Professor, University of Wisconsin-Madison.